

ADDING STRENGTH TO THE TICKET

Leaders of Connecticut Republicans Making Changes In the Slate

NO PREDICTION ON GOVERNORSHIP

But Successful Candidate will Probably Win by 20 Votes

Hartford, Conn., Oct. 13.—The result of the Maine election came as a bombshell to the republican leaders of Connecticut, and the effect has been to upset all plans as to the makeup of the state ticket which the convention will nominate tomorrow. The anxiety tonight was to strengthen the ticket.

By altering the slate, which, save the gubernatorial place, had been prepared as acceptable to the convention. The first place nomination had given anxiety to the leaders in realization of the prominence of Judge Simeon E. Baldwin, the democratic standard bearer, and, because it seemed impossible to

of the vote for first place was that no over twenty votes would separate Lieutenant Governor E. J. Lake and Charles A. Goodwin. Only the bias of favoritism led to prediction as to the winner. It was the general impression that conferences during the night and the employment of strategy would set developed late today. Their anxiety was based on the political drift of affairs and the result of the democratic state convention.

600 Delegates at Armory.

Nevertheless there was very little worry manifested on the faces of near-

Chairman Hill Stirs Enthusiasm.

The convention opened with enthusiasm for Congressman Hill, who in his opening remarks said he was going to tell the delegates of the faith that was in him and through them the people of the state.

Mr. Hill's touching references to Governor Lilley and Mr. Foster brought

D. Bradstreet, is opposing W. H. H. Hall, while four candidates are likely to be presented for the attorney generalship, owing to opposition against Harry E. Back of Danielson. There was no opposition in evidence to Dennis Blakeslee for lieutenant governor. Matthew H. Rogers for secretary of out a response from the audience which filled the galleries to overflowing. Many times he was interrupted by applause.

Mr. Hill in his extempore comment on the tariff revised a statement of the chairman of the democratic convention that tariff experts can be distinguished by their ability to make a Light as candidate for attorney general, owing to opposition to Mr. Back Frank S. Bishop of New Haven was also proposed, and a fourth name is held under cover for use in case compromise candidate is needed. Lake wins for governor it is expected. Hall will win for comptroller.

He said that he had a right to make public what he was doing. He said that he was not a public figure and that he was not a public figure. He said that he was not a public figure and that he was not a public figure.

Mr. Hill's declaration that election of senators will be by popular vote stirred the delegates to enthusiasm and was the only reference of the temporary chairman to the pending senatorial contest in this state.

Appointment of Committees.

After Mr. Hill had completed his speech, Mr. Kenely offered a resolution which went to the committee on rules that the state central committee be empowered to fill vacancies which may occur on the state ticket. Committees on credentials, permanent organization, and resolutions were read from the platform.

The meeting of the committee on permanent organization was presided over by Theodore H. Macdonald, of Woodruff chairman Ella Moss lives in Danbury secretary. The platform will be a short one, and will endorse President Taft's administration, express confidence in the adjustment of tariff conditions by the republican party will extend grateful appreciation to Governor Weeks for his administration.

to carry out the wishes of the late Governor Wiley; will recognize the excellent work of the tuberculosis commission; will recommend that the liability be limited to $5,000 the liability in death due to negligence be repealed; approval of the principle of a public service.

presented by J. Gilbert Calhoun of Hartford and seconded by Colonel Gilman of New Haven. Mr. Goodwin's name will be presented by Gustave B. Carlson of Middletown. George B. Chandler of Rocky Hill and possibly John

SPECULATION ON JUSTICE MOODY'S SUCCESSOR	AERIAL SCOUTS IN FRENCH ARMY OPERATIONS
President to Have Nagel in Mind for Appointment.	Their Usefulness Shown—Fog Ham pers Work of Dirigible.
Washington, Sept. 12. Washington	Paris, Sept. 12.—It is thought here

Washington, Sept. 15. Washington is full of speculation as to who will be named to succeed Associate Justice William H. Moody of the supreme court when Mr. Moody resigns. The latest gossip, and it is founded on some knowledge of the president's mind, is that Charles Nagel, secretary of the Interior, is being considered.

Mr. Nagle is regarded by the president as a very able lawyer. He comes from the Eighth judicial circuit, and the president has desired to appoint a man if possible from that circuit. Lloyd W. Bowers, solicitor general, Lloyd W. Bowers, solicitor general, Lloyd W. Bowers, solicitor general.

who died in Boston today, was slated for a supreme court vacancy. He was from the Eighth circuit.

SUSPECTED MURDER OF NAVAL FIREMAN

Body Found in Mississippi—Enlisted

BLACK HAND BOMB

This is the unofficial estimate of the French special correspondents, who are naturally inclined to make the most of aerostatic success.

from Rhode Island.

Memphis, Tenn., Sept. 13.—That John Gregory, fireman aboard the United States monitor Amphitrite, was murdered and robbed, is the theory advanced after the discovery of his body in the Mississippi river yesterday.

FOLLOWED DEMAND FOR $5,000.

New York Wine Shop Wrecked—Priestor Had Been Threatened.

New York, Sept. 13.—After writing several threatening letters and wait-

Friday was pay day and that evening Gregory started to swim ashore, intending to spend the night in Memphis.

He was not seen since until his body, minus his blouse and pay, $60, was recovered by a fisherman. The body was found in Greenwald's lake.

New Yorkers to Build Alberta Road.
Winnipeg, Man., Sept. 13.—Premier Sifton, for the government of Alberta, yesterday signed plans for the first one hundred miles of the Pincher Creek.

Cardston and Montana railway, which will run north from the international boundary to Peace River landing, 500 miles away. New York capitalists are to be the builders. There will be a branch into the Kootenay coal fields,